Parts of Lots 25 and 26, Plan 19, Now Plan 778	The property known as "Chew House" was first granted by the Crown in 1802 to the Kinsey family. It was then established in 1989 by Frank Fulton Brown, a Buffalo businessman. It was previously the site of Lorraine Summer Resort.

Property	Designation By-law No.	Description of Property	Legal Description	Statement
1271 Sherk Road	4382/55/03	Features: floor-to-ceiling kitchen cabinetry with crown moulding, wainscoting, built-in cupboards, peg rails in upper-floor bedrooms, wide plank floors, rounded threshold boards, and original interior plank doors throughout.	South half of the north half of Lot 12, 2nd Concession of the Township of Humberstone, save and except Part 1 on Reference Plan 59R-673, being the remainder of the lands in instrument No. 92293	This property, originally granted to United Empire Loyalist Frederick Rowe in 1802, has been owned by several generations of the Sherk family and features a mid-1870s Ontario farmhouse with Regency, Gothic, and Italianate architectural styles, along with surviving Mennonite homestead interior features.
269 Killaly Street West	3206/78/95	Features: Italianate details in perfect preservation, interior wooden doorways, and shallow segmentally arched tops on all windows and doors, with the arch mimicked above the brick relief.	Part of Lot 30, Concession 2	The first Christian church of any kind in Humberstone Township. In 1871, George Neff sold 1/2 acre to the Trustees of the Mennonite Church and was then a meeting house.
380 King Street	6743/107/19	Features: dark red brick, stone details, a verandah with a stone wall, a truncated hip roof, steel tiles, and leaded glass windows. It includes ornate wood trim, classical arches, a fireplace, and plaster mouldings.	Lot 9 and the adjacent 7.92 metres of Lot 8 on the Merritt Survey, now known as Plan 987, 988 and 989	The property is a unique example of Romanesque Revival style in Port Colborne. It has historical significance, being part of land once owned by William Hamilton Merritt and later developed by Thomas Euphronius Reeb and John Horne Jr.
296 Fielden Avenue	2929/109/93	Features: buff brick exterior, pre-1930 woodwork, bevelled/etched glass, sunroom addition, and decorative plaster work.	Block B on west side of Fielden Avenue, Plan No. 20 and Block A on west side of Fielden Avenue, Plan No. 2.	The property known as "Roselawn" displays Second Empire style. It was originally Crown granted to Joseph Doan in 1809 and sold to Lewis Carter in 1861. Lewis Carter was a member of Humberstone Township Council in 1854.
346 Catharine Street	2179/127/88	Features: semi-circle windows, decorative gingerbread at the gables, and a wrap around wooden porch.	Northerly part of Lot 4 on the west side of Catharine Street, Plan 503 known as Plan 850	Built-in 1875, a two-storey residence was built on this property during the ownership of Lewis G. Carter. In 1897, it expanded with a two-storey rear addition.
