LOCAL AUTHOR TALK: SARA DE WAARD

Wednesday, August 10, 6:30 – 8:00 p.m.

Join us at the L.R. Wilson Heritage Research Archives for an evening with Port Colborne author Sara de Waard. Sara will discuss her journey as a writer, screenwriting and manuscript writing, and the inspiration for her award-winning debut novel White Lies, followed by a brief Q&A.

In White Lies, de Waard delves into the myriad ways in which grief affects the mental health and emotional behaviour of young teens, and does not shy away from the lived realities of parental abuse for so many students. Despite the book's subject matter, White Lies offers no shortage of hope, love, and a belief in the importance of emotional healing.

About the Author Sara de Waard is an author and screenwriter of Métis descent and is currently in the process of exploring her family's heritage. She is an elementary school teacher and freelance social media manager with a love for film and a soft spot for rap and hip-hop music thanks to her two teenagers. Her writing is often inspired by her compassion for the trials and tribulations of today's youth. After completing her BA in Radio and Television from Ryerson University and a stint in London, ON, de Waard returned near her hometown of Port Colborne, ON where she currently lives with her kids.

This is a free event. Copies of White Lies will be available for purchase at the event for $15 (cash only). Registration is required due to capacity.

Please call to reserve your spot: 905-834-6512.
